Re: United States v. Lucio Celli, 19 CR 127 (AMD)

Your Honor:

We represent Mr. Celli, who is charged with sending threatening communications in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 875(c).

Mr. Celli was ordered released on bond two weeks ago and his father was supposed to file a confession of judgment against his home by today.

I am advised by Mr. Celli's mother that she left the confession my office prepared for her, with payment, at the Dutchess County Clerk's office a week ago, but later was advised that it was rejected due to a ministerial issue. The clerk's office there apparently has different filing requirements than in the five boroughs.

We have prepared a new judgment consistent with Dutchess County's rules and are sending it to the parents to be filed. We ask for a one-week extension to file the judgment. The government has no objection to this request.

Respectfully submitted,
